Compulsory REVISION comments
Minor REVISION comments
Optional/General comments	Dear Editor Thank you very much for inviting me to review this manuscript. This study has been well performed and written. In this study, the authors have evaluated the environmental and housing conditions on the transmission of Lassa fever in a low-income community. The results are informative. Although the study lacks novelty, every epidemiological study from different parts of the world can give clue to health policy makers to better control the infectious diseases.
