Minor REVISION comments	1. All and only those references cited in the text should be included in the list of references at the end of the article. In particular, the reference of the map mentioned in page 3 should as well be included in the References list; while the references Cernea (2011) and Wolfensohn (2016), which were not mentioned in-text, should be deleted or excluded from the References list. 2. Be consistent on the use of a particular referencing style in listing the references. For example, if APA Style was used in one reference, that should be used in all the references. Also check the journal's instructions on citation and referencing.
