Compulsory REVISION comments	The Manuscript is well written with adequate presentation of research results coupled with proper discussion. However, considering the title of the write up "ANALYSIS OF MILK AND FERTILITY TRAITS OF HOLSTEIN FRIESIAN CATTLE IN WARM AND TEMPERATE CLIMATE OF JOS PLATEAU", the researcher(s) ought to have included in the write up, the temperature variations in the study location (JOS PLATEAU) that gave it the characteristics of "warm and temperate climate". This is important since the Journal has an international readership. More so, knowing that JOS PLATEAU is located in Nigeria which is in the tropics, a curious reader while be left to imagine the existence of a temperate climate in a tropical country.
Minor REVISION comments	Peruse and attend to issues raised in the Manuscript.
