| Compulsory REVISION comments | The title is clear and it satisfies the content of the article with a properly presented abstract. The Keywords are to be arranged alphabetically. The content or body of the journal is fairly presented and its okey by me, though the titles of tables 1 and 3 are hanging. Another observation is the short paragraphs with one or two sentences which seems not be right. Finally, the references cited are too old, only references number 1, 2, 4 and 14 are current by my observation. Therefore, advice to use most recent references for the work. | |
